

Annual Meeting
28th & 29th January 2021

Thursday 28th January 2021

Symposium - Safeguarding Mental Health & The Law

09:20-09:30 Welcome and Introduction– Dr Cassie Coleman, Consultant Community Paediatrician, Oxford

09:30-10:15 FASD – A hidden epidemic in our care system, Dr Raja Mukerjee , Consultant Psychiatrist, FASD Service, Surrey.

10:15-11:00 A young person’s experience of Trauma – A social workers perspective - Lucy Anning, Disabled Children’s Team, Bath & NE Somerset

11:00-11:15 – Comfort break

11:15-12:00 Adverse Childhood Experiences (ACEs)- Dr Warren Larkin, Consultant Clinical Psychologist, Visiting Professor University of Sunderland.

12:00-12:45 Conduct Disorder – A disappearing diagnosis? - Professor Stephen Scott, Consultant Psychiatrist, Institute of Psychiatry, Kings College London.

12:45-14:00 Lunch break

14:00-14:45 Care proceedings and CAMHS – A political minefield - Sophie Connors, Barrister, 4 paper buildings, London.

14:45-15:30 Trauma and Neurodevelopment, Professor Helen Minnis, Child and Adolescent Psychiatrist, Glasgow.

15:30-16:30 PANEL Debate – How best can we work together to safeguard our children’s mental health?

END

Friday 29th January 2021

Symposium: Integrating mental and physical health

09:20-09:30 Welcome and Introduction

9:30-10:15 Self harm – what does a good service look like – Dr Virginia Davies, Consultant Liaison Psychiatrist, Whittington Hospital.

10:15-10:45 A Quality Improvement Project to Assess the Prevalence of Mental Health Problems among Paediatric Oncology Patients in East London - Dr Jay Halbert/Dr Birgit Westphal (Presented by Dr Lucy Shimwell, paediatric specialty trainee)

10:45-11:00 Comfort break

11:00-11:30 Keynote lecture: Sir Norman Lamb's recording (+/- 15 min Q&A))

11:30-12:00 RCPCH position on MH, and future vision – Dr Karen Street, Consultant Paediatrician + RCPCH Mental Health Lead, Royal Devon & Exeter NHS Foundation Trust

12:00-12:30 Chronic/functional pain - Dr Konrad Jacobs, Paediatric Clinical Psychologist, Oxford.

12:30-13:00 Lunch break

13:00-13:30 Top 3 Trainee Presentations on interface between physical/mental health Organised by Dr Katya Certic

13:30-14:15 Interactive session 1: COVID and mental health- impact and recovery. Dr Max Davie, Consultant Community Paediatrician, Lambeth Community & Dr Rory Conn, Consultant Child & Adolescent Liaison Psychiatrist, Royal Devon and Exeter Hospital.

14:15-14:30 comfort break

14:30-15:15 Interactive session 2 :

Talking with children and the interface between mental and physical health in the acute medical setting – Sally Benson, Consultant Clinical Psychologist, Addenbrookes Hospital and Dr Sri Velandy, Consultant Child & Adolescent Psychiatrist, Addenbrookes.

15:15-16:00 Functional Neurological Symptoms. Dr Laavanya Damodran, Consultant Paediatric Liaison Neuropsychiatrist, Medical Lead, Health in Mind, Birmingham Children's Hospital.

END